Conclusion of Market Data Trial Period

The Dubai Mercantile Exchange Limited (DME) wishes to remind Clearing Members, Members and Non-Members that the Exchange's 90 day trial period with its market data vendors is coming to a close.

The DME will begin to charge Market Data Vendors for DME Data effective 1 September 2007. It is strongly recommended that customers who wish to continue receiving DME data contact their market data vendor to ensure they will continue to receive pricing information regarding the DME prior to 1 September 2007.
